It's safe to say that regardless of your relationship status, everyone likes a little something sweet to nosh on now and then. With Valentine's Day quickly approaching, we thought it only appropriate to share our favorite spots for a sweet treat in Hoboken (and a little Jersey City). Here are some of our favorite spots to get a dessert {for your Valentine} in town:

Choc O Pain {Heart-Shaped Chocolates and Breads}:

This 1st Street French bakery is filled with flourless chocolate cake and delicious heart-shaped treats for every type of guy or gal. As you can imagine, they're pulling out all of the stops for Valentine's Day. Anything from this cafe will make you feel like you've time travelled back to a vacation in Paris — complete with a cafe au lait. Try their macarons, croissants, and other Valentine's Day treats.
